HOME CIRCLE

TO-DAY AND TO-MORROW.

High hopes that burn like stars sublime,
Go down the Heaven of Freedom;
And true hearts perish in the time
We bitterest need them!
But never sit we down and say
There's nothing left but sorrow;
We walk the wilderness to-day,
The Promised Land Land Land Land

The Promised Land to-morrow.

Our birds of songs are silent now, There are no flowers blooming; Yet life beats in the silent bough, And Freedom's spring is coming; And Freedom's time comes up alway, Tho' we may strand in sorrow; And our good bark, aground to-day, Shall float again to-morrew.

Thro' all the long, dark night of years The people's cry ascendeth, And earth is wet with blood and tears;

But our weak sufferance endeth! The few shall not forever sway, The many toil in sorrow; The bars of hell are strong to-day, But Christ shall rise to-morro

Tho' hearts brood o'er the past, our eyes With smiling futures glisten; For, lo! the dawn bursts up the skies! Lean out your souls and listen! The world rolls Freedom's radiant way, And ripens with her serrow; Take heart! who bear the cross to-day Shall wear the crown to-morrow.

O, Youth! flame-earnest, still aspire, With energies immortal; To many a haven of desire, Our yearning ope's a portal, And though Age wearies by the way, And hearts break in the furrow, We'll sow the golden grain to-day, The harvest comes to-morrow.

Build up heroic lives, and all Be like a sheathen sabra, Ready to flash out at God's call, O chivalry of labor! Triumph and Fail are twins: and aye Joy suns the cloud of serrow And tis the Martyrdom to-day
Brings victory to-morrow.

The Dead Ex-Presidents.

It was mentioned in the notice of the decease of ex-President Johnson that he was the last of those who have held the Presidential office except the present incumbent. The Philadelphia Ledger reminds us that this has not been the case hitherto since the death of Washington, who died during the term of his successor, the elder Adams. A Walking Pineushion.

(From the Baltimore Sun.)

A curious story is told of General C.

A. Evans, of Augusta, Ga. At the battle of Monocacy, Md., while leading his brigade in battle, he was struck in the left side by a minice ball. The ball passed through his arm, and thence through his body. In plowing through his coat pocket it tore through a paper of pine, burying some of them in his flesh. For the past few months he has been troubled with a pain about a foot and a-half from the wound. A week or two since a bump about as large as a pigeon egg was raised on the spot where the pain was most severe. A few days ago three or four pins worked out of this bump, and it disappeared at once. Thus, for eleven years, Mr. Evans has been a walking pincushion

WHOLESALE WARRETS.

CONONIOUS OFFICE. Shorville, Tenn., Aug. 10, 1875. There has been but little life in produce during the week just closed, in fact, almost everything has been draging along at a very moderate rate for several months, but had it not been for the late rains, which greatly delayed the threshing of wheat and oat, trade would have been much improved in all lines long before this.

So far there has been but little choice wheat offered in this market, but we are sorry to say that the most of the samples posented were sprouted or otherwise damaged by the wet weather; at the same time, "Well, old friend, what do you think of Beecher?" was the inquiry.

The dreamy chap got up, tossed his quid out of the window, and camily took the canvasser by the throat and jammed him over a seat and hit him twice on the chin. It was all over before anybody could interfere, and as he resumed his seat he looked back at the canvasser, who, half-stunned, was gazing around in the greatest astonishment and remarked:

"I promised my dying wife Pd lick the next man who said Beecher to me, and now you keep away!"

A prominent New York physician lately complained to DUNDAS DICK & CO. about their SANDALWOOD OIL CAPSULES, stating that sometimes they cared miracidously, but that a patient of bit had taken them without effect. On being informed that several imitations were sold, he inquired and found his patient had not been taking DUNDAS DICK & CO'S.

What happened to this physician may have happened to others, and DUNDAS DICK & CO. Take this method of protecting physicians, draggide and themselves, and of preventing OIL or SANDALWOOD than all the Wholesale and Retail Druggists and Perfumers in the United States combined, and this is the SULE passon why the PURE OIL is seld OILEARER in their Capsules than in any other form.
